HONORING THE WORK OF ALFRED H. KURLAND

(Mr. ESPAILLAT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. ESPAILLAT. Madam Speaker, I rise today to honor the work of Al Kurland, who has dedicated nearly three decades to supporting youth and families throughout the 13th Congressional District.

From his early efforts and grassroots engagement in Washington Heights, Al's work has inspired countless youth advocates, social justice activists, and civic mentors across the city of New York.

Al has long championed ensuring marginalized youth have a voice and are empowered to thrive, and I am proud to recognize his contributions today.

His latest essay, "The Soul of Adolescence Aligns with the Heart of Democracy," follows his journey of discovering his life's purpose and his understanding of adolescent potential and wisdom.

His candor and vulnerability have led to countless young people finding their full potential through community involvement, strengthening our community.

Al Kurland has significantly contributed to our community. For that, we are thankful.

I commend him for his unwavering dedication to all who call our city home and applaud his tireless efforts to make our community stronger for the next generation of civic leaders.

COMMEMORATING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE GRAND OPENING OF GILLEY'S

(Mr. WEBER of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WEBER of Texas. Madam Speaker, on March 29, 1971, in Pasadena, Texas, Mickey Gilley opened a honky-tonk bearing his name and changed the world of country music forever. Gilley's reputation grew so much that Hollywood took notice with the hit movie "Urban Cowboy," filmed in and around the Pasadena location. Man, was it a hit.

Inspired by the real-life romance of a pair of the club's patrons, "Urban Cowboy" put Gilley's on the map, revived music careers, and launched others. It introduced two-stepping to a whole new audience and created a lifestyle which has been adopted by millions.

Madam Speaker, 40 years later, America's love of Wrangler jeans, cowboy boots, and pickup trucks underscores that lasting cultural legacy.

Although the club is no more, Gilley's is certainly not forgotten. Its memory lives on decades later through music and film, of course, but even, more importantly, through the lives and loves of those who frequented Gilley's. And you always knew when someone had been to Gilley's because they had the bumper sticker to prove it.

Thank you to Mickey Gilley for introducing our way of life to the world. Thank you to the Galveston Chamber of Commerce—at 177 years young, Texas' oldest chamber of commerce—for honoring the 50th anniversary of our great southeast Texas true country club and Mr. Mickey Gilley.
